1. Heard both sides. In my order dated 9.1.2006 I have directed that respondent no.1 will furnish one or two local sureties for the amount of Rs.10/- lakhs. Advocate for the applicant states that he may be permitted to give surety of a person who may not be local. He points out that his real mother is solvent to the tune of Rs.14/- lakhs and places reliance on a certificate issued by Tahsildar, Jodhpur, indicating that she is solvent for Rs.14/- lakhs. In the circumstances, the requirement of giving local sureties is re-called and it is directed that respondent no.1 will furnish one or two sureties for the amount of Rs.10,00,000/-. Needless to say that the sureties will be accepted only upon proper and full verification and after solvency and credency of the surety/sureties. Application stands disposed of.
